

PHARMACOLOGICALLY ACTIVE POLYPEPTIDE GLYCOCONJUGATES

Glycoconjugates of polypeptides pharmacologically active with a determined consensus sequence and physico-chemical stability, having an in vivo activity that is not characteristic of the isolated components, with pharmacological and clinical relevance, in terms of their immunomodulatory activity. They are prepared to this end for use in human and animal medicine.